Pansy Antique Shades

One of the best cut flower pansies we've seen!

Pansy Antique Shades

Paint your spring pots, borders and vases with the soft tones of this vigorous pansy whose 4-5cm blooms burst with vintage cream, caramel, mauve, cranberry through to smoky peach and apricot. Each exquisite flower also carries a soft violet perfume, making it a treat for the senses.

Plants will produce elegant 30cm stems with flowers floating above the foliage, making this one of the best cut-flower pansies, ideal mixed with spring bulbs in a vase. For the longest vase life, pick flowers in the morning as they begin to open, and submerge in cool water, helping them last for 5-7 days. Equally content in patio containers or cottage borders, turning every corner of the garden – and your kitchen table – into a living water-colour.

Daffodil Tazetta Mix

Pairs the pure-white, powerfully scented umbels of 'Paper White' with AGM-holder 'Avalanche', whose white petals frame neat yellow cups, and the sunny 'Grand Soleil d'Or', glowing golden-yellow around a tangerine cup, for a richly perfumed, three-tone show from late winter into early spring.

Plant bulbs twice their own depth, crowding several together in bowls or at the border front for maximum colour and scent. Will stay fresh in a vase for 5-7 days.

Tulip Lily Flowering Mix

A match made in heaven! 'Marilyn' with its white petals feathered with scarlet, partners beautifully with the rich ruby-red of 'Pieter de Leur' to give a bold display both in the garden, and your home.

Both have been awarded the RHS Award of Garden Merit for reliable performance in UK gardens, and are perfect for cutting. Pick stems as the buds colour, trim and remove lower leaves, then stand in cool water—flowers last up to a week, so you can enjoy them for longer.

Dear Mr Sample,

This month (hopefully!) brings plenty of sun and lovely high temperatures, so make sure you make time to sit back and relax with a cool drink and enjoy your outside space.

Midsummer is the time when beds, borders and containers are full of colour, and the vegetable patch is producing plenty of tasty treats.

We have highlights of our favourite new varieties on pages 14-15, a wide selection of bulbs from pages 18-41 and drought tolerant plants on pages 48-49. If you're planning ahead we have Winter and Spring Bedding plants on pages 3-13.

It's impossible to fit everything into one catalogue so be sure to visit www.suttons.co.uk to view our full range of plants, seeds and gardening essentials.
